ABOUT THE THEME OF THE SEMINAR

Research and innovations are considered to be the cardinal factors for knowledge creation, which is essential for the prosperity of human civilization. These are the major driving forces that provide input for the scientific discovery and pave the way for further development. The Universities/Colleges/ Institutes are primarily considered to be breeding ground for training and grooming the future talents. Over the years research has made rapid strides in all the fields like Education, Basic Sciences, Engineering & Technology, Science, Commerce, Information and Communication Technology, Health Sciences, Space Sciences, Earth Sciences and Management etc. Research in Education Fields forms the foundation as it strengthens the knowledge base.

Quality of the research has become a grave concern as it has been infested with the problem of mediocrity. Lack of adequate infrastructure, resource constraints, lack of motivation, absence of a comprehensive national research policy, coupled with a few other factors do not encourage the meritorious students to pot research as a career option. Amongst all other factors, training of the researcher is the most crucial one. At present, in most of the Universities/Colleges/Institutes, barring a few disciplines, there is no adequate provision of training on research methodology of Educational Research. The research scholars often depend upon the supervisor/guide for even finding a suitable research problem. In nutshell, the young researcher lack adequate skill to carry out the quality researches. Thus, a passing need has been felt for adopting capacity building measures that may help overcoming the situation. The present National Seminar on "Research in Education, Engineering, Science, Commerce and Management: Innovative Practices, Applications & Impact- 2017" is an endeavour in this direction. Our one of the constituent college Jan Nayak Ch. Devi Lal PG College of Education, Sirsa working under Jan Nayak Ch.
